CONGRESS.

HIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION

Senate, Friday, April 7, 1854. Mr. Mason moved that the Senate proceed of the consideration of Executive business. He aid that the public interests required, in his pinion, that the private calendar should be costponed, and that the Senate should consider

After some remarks by Messrs. Stuart and

Stidell,

Mr. Pearce objected to the motion.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the bills on the private calendar. This being objection day, a large number of bills were objected to and postponed. The following, not being objected to, were passed:

For the relief of Thomas Muller.

For the relief of Mrs. Sally J. B. Cochrane, widow of the late Lieut. R. E. Cochrane.

For the relief of Thomas B. Parsons.

For the relief of Amos Knapp.

For the relief of George Morell.

mittee on the Post Office and Post Roads.

This being private bill day, several bills from the Senate were taken up from the Speaker's table, and appropriately referred.

The consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday was then resumed, being the bill to, authorize the Postmaster General' to contract for the transportation of the mail twice a month between New Orleans and San Francis.

But he would take occasion to show that the princi-ple of this hill is calculated to remedy a defect ple of this hill is calculated to remedy a defect in the Post Office Department's arrangements at present, and to enable that Department to become a self-sustaining establishment. He af-firmed that the Department at present suffered from the transportation of mailable matter in other than the mail conveyances, on account of the more speedy transit accessible. The proposed bill would at the same time increase the speed and reduce the price of mail transit.

Mr. McMullen argued the necessity of referring the bill to the Committee of the Whole. sideration of the subject was here month.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, objected; but Mr. Stanton, of Tennessee, explained, that the money appropriated would not be expended in the State courts, unless the Secretary of the Treasury should regard it as absolutely necessary. He also said that the conspirators had operated in many States, from New York to Louisiana, upon the great national highways of commerce.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee said he could not see why the United States Government should be made a party to the trial. The rivers no more than the railroads were properly under national supervision. The tendencies to centraliza-

THE above Establishment continues in successful operation during the winter as well as summer. The number of patients treated at the Establishment has been on the increase from year to year, for the past six years, until the last season, when the demands of the public far exceeded our power to accommodate them. The increasing rapidity and proportion of cures, from year to year, induces the subscriber to believe that his enlarged experience and opportunities for treatment give facilities to the invalid rarely equalled.

A CHARMING BOOK.

LATELY published, in one beautifully-ornamented volume, 4to, Stories for Alice. By a Mother. With four exquisite designs printed in three tints. Cloth, 75 cents; or richly colored, $1; and with gilt sides and edges, $1.25.

This new book for children is written by a lady, daughter of one of our most enterprising and prominent merchants, who has long been known as a writer of very attractive powers by a large circle of friends in this city, amongst whom her poems have circulated in manuscript. At their urgent request, she has given them to the public in this beautiful volume, and we feel sure every young person into whose hands it may fall will be as delighted and charmed as the many who have already obtained it. While so pleasant a treat and so improving a book can be afforded to children, no parent should longer let them be without it.

WE have deposited with us, for sale, one of Avery's superior Sowing Machines, and are authorized to dispose of the same as a great bargain. This machine is considered one of the best now in use. We annex herewith the recommendation of some of the principal wholesale merchant tailors in New York city.

New York, July 30, 1853.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have examined the "Avery Seveing Machine," and cheerfully recommend it for its simplicity, durability, and especially for the peculiar stitch made by it. The stitch is original, and in appearance is like the most perfect and handsome "back-stitching." We have thoroughly tested the strength of the sewing, and are satisfied that the stitch of this machine makes a stronger and firmer seem than can be made by hand. We take pleasure in recommending this Machine to our friends, and to tailors, seamstresses, and families generally, throughout the country. generally, throughout the country: Boughton & Knapp, Wholesale Dealers in Men's and Boy's Clothing, 19 Courtlandt st. JUST PUBLISHED, in one handy volume, all those popular ways of making money, which have claimed so much attention the past year, viz: Prof. Williamson's, Bowman's, Dr. Shrimer's, Dr. Xaupi's, R. H. Harnan, Dr. Reese's; H. S. Holt's, Shipman & Co.'s, H. P. Cherry's, M. I. Coek's, G. C. Anderson's. All of these have been sold, warranted to yield very heavy profits, from $5 to $10 per day. All togother, though, it is beyond doubt certain that one, two, or three of them will suit the wishes of each person looking out for some liberally paying business, and thus yield correspondingly double or treble profits. To these have been added a number of new plans, never before published, and equal, if not superior, to the best of the above, and suited to the wants of any who might possibly be unsuited in the first mentioned.

The work is complete. Satisfaction is guarantied. The whole will be sent to all enclosing $1, postpaid, to L. M. E. Cooke, Hagerstown, Md. For $5, 6 copies; 13 copies, $10.

TRACY & WILLIAMS, late Professors of Penmanship at Duff's College, Pittsburgh, have taken rooms in Washington Place, 7th street, opposite the Post Office, for the purpose of giving Lessons and Lectures to ladies and gentlemen in this elegant and useful Art. Their specimens comprise every style, both plain and ornamental; their recommendations are numerous, and from some of the best men in the country; and their system of teaching has been universally lauded by the Press of Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New York. They respectfully solicit a visit from the citizens of Washington and vicinity, which will be sufficient to convince them that Tracy & Williams have no superiors as business or ornamental penmen.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price waystem is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and wast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good faith of the one price system; it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offered in prices.

From the United States Argus. To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the eard of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this be has succeeded, so that it matters are when he have of or the number of corns. not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

FARM NEAR WASHINGTON FOR SALE

FARM NEAR WASHINGTON FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale his Farm, situated about five miles from Washington, D. C., in Prince George's county, Md. It contains 1784 acres, more than 30 of which is a fine alluvial meadow, producing a ton and a half of hay to the acre, but which under improved cultivation would produce at least two tons. Hay sells in the Washington market at from $15 to $30 per ton. About four acres of the place is a marsh, covered with several feet in thickness of black earth, the result of decayed vegetation, which, properly composted, is a source from which the upland may be enriched at a reasonable cost. About 60 acres of the farm is woodland—growth principally oak and chestnut. The land, except the meadow, is undulating, and affords many beautiful sites for building. There are many springs of excellent water on the place, and it is noted for its healthfulness. The soil of the greater part of the upland is a sandy loam, underlaid by clay—in some places, clay predominating. About 75 acres could be divided into small gardening farms, giving nearly an equal quantity of wood and arable land to each. There is an orchard of 150 peach trees and 60 apple trees on the place, all bearing. The farm is well fenced. The buildings are—a log house of four rooms, with a frame addition of three rooms, a meat-house of sun-dried brick, a log kitchen separate from the dwelling, a corn-house, stable, carriage-house, &c. There is a stream of water running through the place, with sufficient water and fall for a small mill. Price, $50 per acre. Torms—one-third cash; a long credit for the residue, if desired; or, it would be exchanged for real estate in the city of Washington. Address

Marrin Buell.

Washington, D. C. Fifty acres, about half of which is woodland, as which could be divided into three gardening farms, with woodland and a beautiful building site to each, would be sold separately. Or, if preferred, I will sell the other part of the farm, on which are the buildings, orchard, and meadow, which cannot be conveniently divided.

Northwest corner of Sixth and Walnut streets,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

The undersigned has removed his Mercantile College to his new building, northwest corner of Walnut and Sixth streets, where he has fitted up a splendid suite of rooms, expressly for his business—having spared neither pains nor expense in making them in every respect the most convenient and pleasant school rooms in the United States.

The plan adopted in teaching combines practice with theory; instead of uving books, the pupils are exercised in making original entries of every-day business transactions. Journalizing, posting, balancing accounts, opening and closing of a great variety of different sots of books, both for partnership and individual business, where the business has been prosperous and adverse; and thus qualifying the student for entering into the practical duties of the accountant, in any kind of business.

The course of instruction will consist of Double-entry Book-keeping, embracing every department of trade and mercantile accounts, vis. Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Shipping, Individual, Partnership, Steamboating, and Compound Co. Business. Commercial Calculations, Practical Penmanssip, and Lectures on Commercial Law, also, Lectures on the Science of Accounts, Custom of Merchants, etc.

In addition to the regular course of study, the undersigned has made arrangements with Henry Snow, Esq. Hon. Bellamy Storer, Prof. C. W. Wright, and other eminent lecturers, to deliver a course of furners on the subjects of Commercial Law, History of dersigned has made arrangements with Henry Snow, Esq., Hon. Bellamy Storer, Prof. C. W. Wright, and other eminent lecturers, to deliver a course of Lectures on the subjects of Commercial Law, History of Commerce, Political Economy as connected with commerce, and other subjects of great importance in a commercial point of view, and never before introduced in any Mercantile College in the United States. Pupils are instructed individually, and not in classes; so that students may enter at any time, and proceed in the ratio of their capacity and assiduity. Public examinations are had, (though pupils are examined privately, if they desire it,) when the student undergoes rigid an thorough interrogations by the Principal, (assisted by a committee of Practical Accountants and business men.) and Diplomas awarded to those who are deemed worthy of them.

A course can be completed in from six to ten weeks. The Principal will take pleasure in doing everything in his power to advance his students, and make them thorough and accomplished accountants; and his extensive acquaintance with the business community will generally enable him to procure situations for those desirous of obtaining them.

Terms: For a full course of lessons in Book-keeping, Writing, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Law, etc., $40.

BACON'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE.—The examination of the students in Book-keeping exhibited a degree of proficiency on their part highly creditable to themselves and Mr. Bacon their instructor.

The most difficult problems in Double Entry were as rapidly solved as the most simple, giving ample proof to the audience that the informat on imparted during the session would be of practical benefit.

From the Cincinnati Daily Gazette.

The various complex questions proposed by the Principal and other gentlemen present were answered with great promptitude and conciseness, which reflects great credit upon the course of study pursued at this institution.

IT has been the purpose of the Trustees of this School, from the first, to make it both safe and inviting to Students: and we believe we may now safely recommend it, under the supervision and care of President Leonard G. Calkins, whose ability for that responsible office has been most happily tested, assisted by a competent "Board of Instruction." Free from the unboly influence of larger towns, and per vaded by moral influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think parents must feel a degree of security, begotten by no other set of circumstances.

One arrangement in this Institution, not to be overlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Rhetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking, under the careful training of the President.

The question was taken on Mr. McMullen's motion to commit the bill to the Committee of of the Whole, when a quorum did not vote. A call of the House was thereupon ordered at twenty minutes past twelve o'clock, which was, on motion, arrested in its progress.

Mr. Orr moved that the consideration of the bill be postponed for three weeks; but

Mr. Jones said the sufferers by the depredations of the criminals should look to it, and see to their punishment. He opposed the appropriation, because it was a bad precedent.

The report and bill were finally referred to the Committee of the Whole House.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Civil and Diplomatic bill; and Mr. Carothers arose to address the House in support of the Nebraska bill.

That sentiment had marked the able, dignified, and patriotic Fillmore, as its victim, and had elevated a glorious here and pure man as its candidate. But he had fallen, because sympathy with the Anti-Slavery sentiment had been confidently charged upon him.

The Democrate had triumphed over him, but only, as it has appeared, to regret their triumph. They have a President whom they neither love nor respect; one who stands in no better position, if as good, as did John Tyler. The latter, indeed, it was always confessed, had a party of at least seven to do him service and reverence; but President Pierce, the speaker believed, could command but three.

He would not, however, oppose a bill because of his opposition to the President, who urges its passage. He defended it from the imputation of hemg unjust towards the Indiana, and recognised in it the principle of Congressional non-intervention, which he approved.
